TO: Most Reverend Archbishops and Bishops, Diocesan
Attorneys and State Conference Directors

SUBJECT: 2009 Group Ruling

FROM: Anthony Picarello, General Counsel APP
(Staff: Deirdre Dessingue, Associate General Counsel)

This memorandum relates to the Group Ruling reaffirmation letter issued to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on July 28, 2009 by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"), with respect to the federal tax status of Catholic organizations listed in the 2009 edition of the Official Catholic Directory ("OCD")^{1/}. As explained in greater detail below, this ruling is important for establishing:

- (1) the exemption of such organizations from:
 - (a) federal income tax;
 - (b) federal unemployment tax (but see ¶4 of "Explanation" below); and
- (2) the deductibility, for federal income, gift and estate tax purposes, of contributions to such organizations.

The 2009 Group Ruling is the latest in a series that began with the original determination of March 25, 1946. In the 1946 document, the Treasury Department affirmed the exemption from federal income tax of all Catholic institutions listed in the OCD for that year. Each year since 1946, in a separate letter, the 1946 ruling has been extended to cover the institutions listed in the current OCD^{2/}. The 2009 Group Ruling is generally consistent with the 2008 ruling. The annual group ruling clarifies important tax consequences for Catholic institutions listed in the OCD, and should be retained for ready reference. Rulings from prior years establish tax consequences with respect to transactions occurring during those years.

² Catholic organizations with independent IRS exemption determination letters are listed in the 2009 OCD with an asterisk (*), which indicates that such organizations are not covered by the Group Ruling.

Responsibilities under Group Ruling. Diocesan officials who compile OCD information for submission to the OCD publisher are responsible for the accuracy of such information. They must ensure that only qualified organizations are listed, that organizations are listed under their correct legal names, that organizations that cease to qualify are deleted promptly, and that newly-qualified organizations are listed as soon as possible.

EXPLANATION

1. Exemption from Federal Income Tax. The latest ruling reaffirms the exemption from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of "the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in the Official Catholic Directory for 2009". (The Group Ruling does not cover organizations listed with asterisks or any foreign organizations listed in the 2009 OCD.)

Verification of Exemption under Group Ruling. Organizations exempt under the Group Ruling generally are not included in IRS Publication 78, the IRS Exempt Organization Business Master File ("EOBMF"), or online databases derived from either of these sources. This does not mean that organizations included in the Group Ruling are not tax-exempt, that contributions to them are not deductible, or that they are not eligible for grant funding from private foundations. Organizations included in the Group Ruling that encounter difficulties verifying their tax-exempt status under the Group Ruling should refer donors, including private foundations, to IRS Publication 4573, Group Exemptions, available on the IRS website at www.irs.gov. Publication 4573 explains that: (1) IRS does not determine which organizations are included in a group exemption; (2) subordinate organizations exempt under a group exemption do not receive an IRS determination letter; (3) exemption under a group ruling is verified by reference to the official subordinate listing (e.g., the Official Catholic Directory); and (4) it is not necessary for an organization included in a group exemption to be listed in Publication 78 or the EOBMF. IRS does not provide letters verifying inclusion in the Group Ruling.

2. Public Charity Status. The latest Group Ruling affirms that organizations included in the 2009 OCD are not private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code. Newly-created or newly-affiliated organizations must establish that they are not private foundations as a condition of inclusion in the Group Ruling and OCD.

Verification of Public Charity Status. The Group Ruling states that organizations covered under its provisions are public charities under section 509(a), but does not specify the subsection of section 509(a) under which they are classified because all covered organizations do not share a common classification. Although USCCB is classified as a public charity under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i), that classification does not extend to organizations covered under the Group Ruling. Each organization must establish its own public charity classification under section 509(a)(1), 509(a)(2) or 509(a)(3).

As a result of requirements imposed by the Pension Protection Act of 2006 with respect to private foundation grants to section 509(a)(3) supporting organizations, private foundations may require more specific documentation of public charity status under section 509(a)(1), 509(a)(2), 509(a)(3)-Type I or 509(a)(3)-Type II.

Certain types of organizations included in the Group Ruling qualify as public charities by definition under the Code. These are:

- churches and conventions and associations of churches under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) [generally limited to dioceses, parishes, religious orders, and state Catholic conferences];
- elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii); and
- hospitals under sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii).

Other organizations covered under the Group Ruling may qualify under the public support tests of either sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) or section 509(a)(2). Verification of public charity classification under either of the support tests generally can be established by providing a written declaration of the applicable classification signed by an officer of the organization, along with a reasoned written opinion of counsel and a copy of the support test portion of Form 990, if applicable. A section 509(a)(3) organization included in the Group Ruling should be able to rely upon a written declaration of the applicable supporting organization classification signed by an officer of the organization, along with a reasoned written opinion of counsel and Form 990, if applicable, to satisfy foundation grantors of their Type I or Type II supporting organization status.

3. Deductibility of Contributions. The Group Ruling assures donors that contributions to the institutions listed in the 2009 OCD and covered by the Group Ruling are deductible for federal income, gift, and estate tax purposes.

4. Unemployment Tax. The Group Ruling establishes exemption from federal unemployment tax only. Individual states may impose unemployment tax on organizations included in the Group Ruling, even though they are exempt from the federal tax. Please refer to your local tax advisor any questions you may have about state unemployment tax.

5. Social Security Tax. All section 501(c)(3) organizations, including churches, are required to withhold and pay taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) for each employee.^{3/} However, services performed by diocesan priests in the exercise of their ministry are not considered "employment" for FICA (Social Security) purposes.^{4/} FICA should not be withheld from their salaries. For Social Security purposes, diocesan priests are subject to self-employment tax ("SECA") on their salaries as well as on the value of meals and housing or housing allowances provided to them.^{5/} Neither FICA nor income tax withholding is required on remuneration paid directly to religious institutes for members who are subject to vows of poverty and obedience and are employed by organizations included in the Official Catholic Directory.^{6/}

6. Federal Excise Tax. Inclusion in the Group Ruling has no effect on an organization's liability for federal excise taxes. Exemption from these taxes is very limited. Please refer to your local tax advisor any questions you may have about excise taxes.

7. State/Local Taxes. Inclusion in the Group Ruling does not automatically establish an organization's exemption from state or local income, sales or property taxes. Typically, separate exemptions must be obtained from the appropriate state or local tax authorities in order to qualify for any applicable exemptions. Please refer to your local tax advisor any questions you may have about state or local tax exemptions.

8. Form 990. All organizations included in the OCD must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, unless they are eligible for a mandatory or discretionary exception to this filing requirement. There is no automatic exemption from the Form 990 filing requirement simply because an organization is included in the Group Ruling or listed in the OCD. Organizations required to file Form 990 must do so by the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of their fiscal year.^{7/} Among the organizations not required to file Form 990 under section 6033 of the Code are: (i) churches; (ii) integrated auxiliaries of churches^{8/}; (iii) the exclusively religious activities of religious orders; (iv) schools below college level affiliated with a church or operated by a religious order; (v) organizations with gross receipts normally not in excess of $25,000;^{9/} and (vi) certain church-affiliated organizations that finance, fund or manage church assets, or maintain church retirement insurance programs, and organizations controlled by religious orders that finance, fund or manage assets used for exclusively religious activities.^{10/}

Special Rules for Section 509(a)(3) Supporting Organizations. The Pension Protection Act of 2006 eliminated discretionary exceptions to the Form 990 filing requirement as applied to section 509(a)(3) supporting organizations. The discretionary exceptions likely to be affected by this provision are exceptions (v) and (vi) above. This means that if an organization exempt under the Group Ruling is classified as a section 509(a)(3) supporting organization, it may no longer rely on exceptions (v) or (vi) above as the basis for not filing Form 990. However, a section 509(a)(3) supporting organization that qualifies as an

⁸ I.R.C. § 6033(a)(3)(A)(i); Treas. Reg. § 1.6033-2(h). To qualify as an integrated auxiliary of a church, an organization must be described in section 501(c)(3), qualify as other than a private foundation, be affiliated with a church, and qualify as internally supported. An organization will be considered internally supported unless it both:

- (1) Offers admissions, goods, services, or facilities for sale, other than on an incidental basis, to the general public (except goods, services, or facilities sold at a nominal charge or substantially below cost), and
- (2) normally receives more than 50 percent of its support from a combination of governmental sources; public solicitation of contributions (such as through a community fund drive); and receipts from the sale of admissions, goods, performance of services, or furnishing of facilities in activities that are not unrelated trades or businesses.

integrated auxiliary of a church under section 6033 may continue to rely on that exception as a basis for not filing Form 990. Because it is a statutory exception, the integrated auxiliary of the church exception was not affected by the Pension Protection Act.

Form 990-N Filing Requirements. Under the Pension Protection Act of 2006, an organization exempt under the Group Ruling that claims exception (v) above (gross receipts normally not in excess of $25,000) as its sole basis for not filing Form 990 must file annual electronic Form 990-N ("e-postcard") as required by IRS, setting forth the following information: (1) the legal name of the organization; (2) any name under which the organization operates or does business; (3) the organization's mailing address and Internet website address; (4) the organization's EIN; (5) the name and address of a principal officer; (6) evidence of the organization's continued qualification for exemption from the Form 990 filing requirement; and (7) notification of termination, if applicable. Form 990-N must be submitted electronically through the IRS website on or before the 15th day of the fifth calendar month following the close of the fiscal year for which it is filed.¹¹

Public Disclosure and Inspection. Any organization that is required to file either Form 990 or Form 990-N must upon request make a copy of the form and its schedules and attachments (other than Form 990 contributor lists) available for public inspection during regular business hours at the organization's principal office and at any regional or district offices having three or more employees. Form 990 or Form 990-N for a particular year must be made available for a three year period beginning with the due date of the return.^{12/} In addition, any organization that files Form 990 or Form 990-N must comply with written or in-person requests for copies of the form. The organization may impose no fees other than a reasonable fee to cover copying and mailing costs. If requested, copies of the forms for the past three years must be provided. In-person requests must be satisfied on the same day. Written requests must be satisfied within 30 days.^{13/}

Public Disclosure of Form 990-T. Under the Pension Protection Act of 2006, Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Unrelated Business Income Tax Return, is subject to the same public inspection and copying rules that apply to Forms 990 and 990-N.

Revocation for Failure to File. Under the Pension Protection Act of 2006, the tax-exempt status of an organization, including an organization exempt under the Group Ruling, that is required to file either Form 990 or Form 990-N but that fails to do so for three consecutive years will be considered revoked. Reapplication to IRS (not through the Group Ruling process) will be required in order to reinstate exemption.

9. Revenue Procedure 75-50. Rev. Proc. 75-50¹⁴ sets forth notice, publication, and recordkeeping requirements regarding racially nondiscriminatory policies with which private schools, including church-related schools, must comply as a condition of establishing and maintaining exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Under Rev. Proc. 75-50 private schools are required to file an annual certification of racial nondiscrimination with the IRS. For private schools not required to file Form 990, the annual certification must be filed on Form 5578, Annual Certification of Racial Nondiscrimination for a Private School Exempt from Federal Income Tax. This form is available at www.irs.gov. Form 5578 must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of the fiscal year. Form 5578 may be filed by an individual school or by the diocese on behalf of all schools operated under diocesan auspices. The requirements of Rev. Proc. 75-50 remain in effect and must be complied with by all schools listed in the OCD. Diocesan or school officials should ensure that the requirements of Rev. Proc. 75-50 are met since failure to do so could jeopardize the tax-exempt status of the school and, in the case of a school not legally separate from the church, the tax-exempt status of the church itself.

10. Lobbying Activities. Organizations exempt under the Group Ruling may lobby for changes in the law, provided such lobbying is not more than an insubstantial part of their total activities. Attempts to influence legislation both directly and through grassroots lobbying are subject to this restriction. The term "lobbying" includes activities in support of or in opposition to referenda, constitutional amendments, and similar ballot initiatives. There is no distinction between lobbying activity that is related to an organization's exempt purposes and lobbying that is not. There is no fixed percentage that constitutes a safe harbor for "insubstantial" lobbying. Please refer to your local tax advisor any questions you may have about permissible lobbying activities.

11. Political Activities. Organizations exempt under the Group Ruling may not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Violation of the prohibition against political campaign intervention can jeopardize the organization's tax-exempt status. In addition to revoking tax-exempt status, IRS may also impose excise taxes on an exempt organization and its managers on account of political expenditures. Where there has been a flagrant violation, IRS has authority to seek an injunction against the exempt organization and immediate assessment of taxes due. The Office of General Counsel memorandum, Political Campaign Activity Guidance for Catholic Organizations, available at www.usccb.org/ogc, contains detailed information regarding the prohibition against political campaign intervention. If you have any questions in this regard, please refer them to your local tax advisor.

12. Group Exemption Number. The group exemption number assigned to the USCCB Group Ruling is 0928. This number must be included on each Form 990, Form 990-T, and Form 5578 required to be filed by any organization exempt under the Group Ruling.^{15/} We advise against using the group exemption number on Form SS-4, Request for Employer Identification Number, because in the past this has resulted in IRS improperly including USCCB as part of the organization's name when it enters the organization in its database.

IRS has expressed concern about organizations covered under the Group Ruling that fail to include the group exemption number (0928) on their Form 990 filings, particularly the initial filing.

Dear Sir or Madam:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1946, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory 1946, are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the organizations added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 2009 shows the names and addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time the Directory was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory for 2009 are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Beginning January 1, 1984, unless specifically excepted, you and your subordinates must pay tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) for each employee who is paid $100 or more in a calendar year, as indexed for inflation. You and your subordinates are not liable for the tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

The conditions concerning the retention of your group exemption as set forth in our previous determination letter dated August 17, 1983, remain in full force and effect.

Sincerely,
