This question is to be completed only by (a) the Applicant, and (b) any legal entity which has a direct ownership interest in the Applicant exceeding 7.5 percent. It is not to be completed by any legal entity which has only an indirect ownership interest in the Applicant.

Under Municipal Code Section 2-154-015, the Disclosing Party must disclose whether such Disclosing Party or any "Applicable Party" or any Spouse or Domestic Partner thereof currently has a "familial relationship" with any elected city official or department head. "Applicable Party" means (1) all corporate officers of the Disclosing Party, if the Disclosing Party is a corporation; all partners of the Disclosing Party, if the Disclosing Party is a general partnership; all general partners and limited partners of the Disclosing Party, if the Disclosing Party is a limited partnership; all managers, managing members and members of the Disclosing Party, if the Disclosing Party is a limited liability company; (2) all principal officers of the Disclosing Party; and (3) any person having more than a 7.5 percent ownership interest in the Disclosing Party. Explanation:

I am able to certify the above to be true. This being said, in an effort to provide complete transparency, I did want to add that Parsons Brinckerhoff* was purchased in October 2014. WSP Global Inc., a Canadian owned professional services firm, is now the ultimate parent of Parsons Brinckerhoff*. WSP Global Inc., a public entity, and its affiliates have never been charged by a public body or convicted for issues related to inappropriate bidding practices or unethical behavior associated to acts described in paragraph b. However, a local commission of inquiry into the awarding and management of construction contracts in the province of Quebec, colloquially called the Charbonneau Commission, began hearings in 2012.

Over a span of two years, most consulting engineering firms were in some way asked by way of active and ex-employees, to testify on potential inappropriate bidding practices or unethical behavior which may have taken place in the industry, several years back. The matter is still under investigation by authorities including the Canadian Competition Bureau. GENIVAR, now WSP Canada Inc., a direct subsidiary of WSP Global Inc., had ex-employees who allegedly participated in improper acts. The most recent update on the Charbonneau Commission as it pertains to WSP Global Inc. can be found in annual reports.

Furthermore, please note that under government procurement laws in Quebec, significant government contracts may be awarded only if the AMF (the securities exchange commission) has granted a certificate approving the effectiveness of controls to prevent inappropriate bidding practices or unethical behavior. This certificate was awarded to WSP Global Inc. without any underlying conditions in April 2013.
